

Lyndon State College Early Promise Program Scholarship Application

Deadline: May 1

The Program

With the help of the Jane's Trust, the Patrick and Marcelle Leahy Center for Rural Students at Lyndon State College established the Early Promise Scholarship Program to assist graduating high school seniors who are the first in their immediate family to attend college and who plan to continue their education at Lyndon State College. It provides students who would otherwise not be able to afford a four-year college degree with up to $5,000 scholarship per year for four years.

Eligibility

Applicants to the Early Promise Scholarship Program must be:

- Graduating seniors attending high schools in Vermont's Orleans, Essex, Orange, or Caledonia County OR New Hampshire's Coos or Grafton County.
- Students who are the first in their immediate family to attend college. (Neither of the student's parents or primary guardians have completed a four-year degree.)
- Pell-eligible OR currently eligible for free/reduced lunch. Students who cannot complete a FAFSA must submit a written statement explaining why.
- Students who plan to enroll full-time at Lyndon State College.

Awards

Awards are automatically renewed contingent upon satisfactory academic performance (cumulative 2.5 GPA or higher) in a full-time course of study.

Application

Interested students must complete the application and mail it to Jennifer Harris (see below) postmarked no later than May 1. Applicants are responsible for gathering and submitting all necessary information. Applications are evaluated on the information supplied; therefore, answer all questions as completely as possible. Incomplete applications will not be evaluated.

Selection of Recipients

Scholarship recipients are selected on the basis of first generation status, financial need, and their statement of goals and aspirations. Applicants will be notified in May. Unfortunately, not all applicants to the program will be selected as recipients at this time.

Obligations

Recipients agree to maintain a 2.5 GPA or higher. Although not required, Early Promise Scholars will be encouraged to serve as Leahy Center mentors to rural, high school students. Expectations to fulfill requirements will be signed by recipients.

Revisions

The Leahy Center for Rural Students reserves the right to review the conditions and procedures of this scholarship program and to make changes at any time.

V. Short Answer Essay

On a separate piece of paper please print or type a short essay addressing only one of the following items:

- A. What does it mean to you to be the first person in your family to go to college, and how will the Early Promise Scholarship help you to achieve your dreams?

- B. There are a number of factors that can present obstacles for many students. These may include, for example, economic factors (limited income, financial responsibilities), educational factors (family or school situations that affect learning), or other factors (lack of exposure to opportunities, health or disability challenges, etc.). Think about your living situation and the environment in which you function everyday (your family, home life, school life, economic or personal limitations). What has been challenging and how have you dealt with it?

- C. Describe a community service project or personal/family situation that you have been involved with and tell us how it had an impact on you, your family, community, and/or school.

IV. Additional Information

- Please enclose one letter of recommendation.

Thank you for your interest in the Leahy Center for Rural Students Early Promise Program.
